

BARRE DAILY TIMES

Published every week-day afternoon.
 Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cents; single copy, 1 cent.
 Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1908.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was

4,775

copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

It will be Spaulding high school's fifteenth class.

Of course, "Spunky Lamolite" had to have its candidate.

The Vermont Eastern Star seems to be in the ascendant.

The closing of the city schools means the coming of the city visitors; so get ready, you Vermonters.

If the June brides don't hurry the sweet girl graduates will get ahead of them in this month's prominence.

Having passed successfully under the knife, Editor Stone of the St. Johnsbury Caledonian knows how it feels to be cut up over a thing.

Lieutenant Governor Draper of Massachusetts has made ten vetoes during the few months that he has been acting governor in Governor Guild's sickness.
 He ought to go down in Massachusetts history as the great vetoist.

The Rutland Herald is of the opinion that the Vermont delegation in Congress made Fuller C. Smith of St. Albans national bank examiner just to get him out of the way, so he couldn't be elected chairman of the Republican state committee. When it takes to discerning dark individuals in the wood pile or smelling rodents, pass the job to The Herald. Nevertheless, we have not heard anything yet to combat its shelving theory.

EIGHTEEN YEARS AGO AND NOW.

Eighteen years have not changed the opinions of the Bradford Opinion concerning Carroll S. Page, and it goes back to its files of 1890 and brings to light an editorial opinion of the Hyde Parker written when he was a candidate for governor. The opinion is interesting, and is: "He is a clean, self-possessed, straightforward, talented business man, possessing great energy, coupled with remarkable executive ability. His past record is sufficient to guarantee that as the chief magistrate of our good state he would in every way prove equal to the position. His extensive acquaintance with men and affairs would enable him to give us an administration which would be safe and dignified, as well as brilliant." Why need ex-Governor Page undertake to raise new campaign material, when he has such resources as this among the old?

WHAT ARE YOU EARNING?

If any man in Vermont is not earning $8.00 per week, he is not doing as well as the average, and those who are getting anything above that amount may figure just how much better off they are than the common horde of people in the state. The 1905 census of manufactures gives $8.50 as the average wage for men, all branches being considered. It is perhaps needless to state that the highest wages are paid to the workers on monuments and tombstones, their average wage per week being $14.87. Which adds new proof that no class of workmen in the state is better recompensed than are the granite cutters of Barre and of the allied trades. The cost of living may be somewhat higher in Barre than in other sections of the state, in consequence and undoubtedly is higher in some respects. But there is at the same time a wider margin for providing the comforts and even luxuries of life than is afforded by any branch of labor regardless of the community in which located. Evidence of this is to be seen in the comfortable homes, a great many of which are the property of the occupants or which are being paid for by installments, and the better manner of living to which they are accustomed.
 More than that, the workmen in the granite industry of Barre, by virtue of their labor agreement, have the greater opportunity to enjoy the fruits of their toil. While men are laboring nine, ten, eleven and even twelve hours, it may be, the limit here required is eight hours per day and with Saturday half-holidays during the summer months, which are to-day enjoyed for the first time this season, thrown into the bargain. It would be an extreme hardship to now go back to former conditions, wouldn't it?

GREATEST EVER KNOWN.

The Montana Blockade Breaks All Records.

Helena, Mont., June 5.—The greatest railroad blockade in the history of Montana has resulted from the rains of the last week. Thursday night the streets of Helena were flooded and on every side of the city railroad tracks are washed out.

Reports received say that the Great Northern tracks at Wolf Creek are under three inches of water. Railroad officers say it is impossible to tell when the service can be resumed.

Special Panama Hat Sale

2 doz. Genuine Panama Hats, $5 and $6 Grade, $3.95

We have arranged with an experienced clothing man in New York to become a special buyer for our store. His whole time is devoted to hunting up every new fashion fad and fancy for men's wear that is seen on Fifth Avenue or displayed in the Broadway stores.

Now we can give you unusual advantages. Here you'll find samples of all the novelties as soon as they are displayed in New York, and by having a man "on the spot" we will be able to pick up goods occasionally at one fourth to one half their regular price.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Straight From Shoulder.

The delay in printing the state insurance report for 1906 is said to be due to the burning out of the Tuttle company at Rutland after the forms were nearly ready for the press, the first destroying not only the forms but the copy and the proofs. If the state insurance commissioners had taken the public into their confidence in regard to this matter there would have been no occasion for criticism in this particular case. However, we have yet to be convinced that affairs in this department are conducted as systematically as they ought to be. People in close touch with state matters assert that neither the state treasurer nor the secretary of state is as systematic as he should be in the conduct of public business.— Battleground Reformer.

A Modern Instance.

William A. Lord of Montpelier was an outspoken opponent of Zed S.
 Stanton when he was a candidate for supreme court judge two years ago, and is now one of his most active supporters in his candidacy for the governorship.

Protest's friends now very naturally want to know what there is about the man that fits him for the governorship that suited him for the judgeship.
 Consistency is a jewel, even in politics, and here is one of the instances where the good natured Roxbury candidate might be expected to pray:
 "From overzealous friends, good Will Lord deliver us!"—St. Johnsbury Republican.

Fish Losing?

Reports from up the district indicate that Congressman Foster is forging steadily ahead of Brother Fish and will be an easy winner. It is even predicted by some that Mr. Fish will withdraw before the convention meets. He lost his case when he wrote that boyish, scolding letter to the controller of the currency when he was invited to resign as bank examiner or keep out of politics.
 Mr. Fish is a clean, clever man, but that letter was not of the kind to convince the voters of his depth and breadth.
 Moreover, Mr. Foster has made an exceptionally fine record as congressman and there is no good reason for displacing him just now with the revision of the tariff and other important matters coming up at the next session of Congress.
 With his experience in legislation and his familiarity with the needs of this district he can be of more value to the state than any new man, even if the new man were of greater natural ability.— Bennington Banner.

Light Artillery.

Mr. Stanton's candidacy for the governorship is not likely to be seriously injured by the light artillery turned upon it thus far by the management of Mr. Protty's campaign.

Calling names does not make votes, and it will occur to many people that others besides the Roxbury gentlemen are sitting under the political apple tree and hurling sticks to hasten the dropping of the fruit to where it can easily be appropriated.
 Arguments against appeals to prejudice should be so carefully constructed as not to include the same sort of appeals.

JINGLES AND JESTS

A Seed Tragedy.
 This is the short, sweet, sorrowful tale Of Jessica Jenkins Jones.
 She planted a packet of seeds with pride While her dog looked on with his head on the side.
 And thought, "She's burying bones."
 When Jessica left, her dog like mad In search of the hudson bones.
 So Jessica's garden it doesn't grow, And Jessica's dog is cross, and so Is Jessica Jenkins Jones.
 —Doris Webb in St. Nicholas.

Woes of the Packsons.
 "The Packsons are happily married, aren't they?"
 "Oh, no! Why, they hadn't lived together three weeks before she discovered that he played a wretched game of bridge."—New York Life.

As You Please.
 If a person asks you, "Why are clever people so homesy?" you can take it as a compliment or not, as you please.
 —Judge.

Cause For Rejoicing.
 When the ice trust gets its work in and the price soars out of sight, Just sit down in some shady spot and start your wheels to going right.
 Try to console yourself by thinking that a chance will come at last, For the coal trust cannot sting you till the heated term is past.
 —Detroit Tribune.

Man's Own Voice.
 "Dar is sumpin about de sound of a man's own voice," said Uncle Eben, "dat he likes. De mos' fun mos' of us gets out'n a baseball game is de chance to show dat we kin beat somebody else hollerin'."—Washington Star.

Indisputable.
 "But I was under the impression that she sang. Are you sure she doesn't?"
 "Quite sure; I've heard her."—Kansas City Times.

The Martyr at the Steak.
 O beefsteak, there up on my plate, For thee I sigh, on thee I saw!
 Why is't thy fibers will not part That I may fill my empty maw?
 This world a paradise would be If friends would hold as firm as thee.
 —Lippincott's Magazine.

In a Local Option Town.
 "What are the lost arts?" inquired the student.
 "I don't know all of them," answered Colonel Stillwell, "but making a mint julep is one."—Washington Star.

Obvious.
 Bertie—Hello, old chap! What d'you know?
 Reginald—Nothing, by Jove—not a thing, 'pon m' word!—Puck.

Darwin Reversed.
 He was a man among men.
 But, alas,
 'Tis sad, but none the less true, His most a woman's self.
 A young and beautiful woman—
 And she made a monkey of him.
 —Chicago News.

Painfully Shy.
 "Mr. Rubingay is a very timid young man."
 "Timid! I should say so. He's afraid to begin a letter 'Dear Miss Smith' because it's leap year."—Washington Star.

Didn't Stay Light.
 Ella—Bella bleached her hair, but the original color is coming back again.
 Stella—Yes, it seems to be a case of the light that faded.—New York Press.

Different Now.
 As a lightning scene artist I Once thought that I was in it.
 But my wife now has me faded—She makes scenes in half a minute.
 —Houston Post.

Marked Down.
 Mr. Harddrive—It's my opinion that the influence of bargain sales is immense, if not positively irreligious.
 Mrs. Harddrive—Why, dear, even the Bible speaks approvingly of the ninety and nine!—Puck.

Playing Safe.
 If asked to tell a woman's age, My answer I'd postpone Until I reached the other end Of a long distance phone.
 —Chicago News.

Still at It.
 Church—I see that auctioneer has an automobile.
 Gothun—Given up the auctioneering business?
 "Oh, no; he's still knocking down things."—Yonkers Statesman.

DOLLIVER IS MODEST.

He'd Rather Be Senator Than a V.P.
 Anyway.

Chicago, June 6.—Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa, who has been mentioned as the administration's candidate for vice-president, has intimated to his friends that he is well satisfied with his seat in the United States Senate.
 At his home at Fort Dodge, Ia., he said yesterday:
 "I would not want to belittle the honor of being vice-president. It is a great dignity and honor; but the change does not appeal to me. I want rest and repose this summer and have no desire to plunge into the national campaign in that way."
